

SAW MILL BOILER EXPLODES DEALING DEATH TO THREE; ANOTHER DIES LATER.

Troy, Ala., Nov. 1.—One of the most terrible accidents ever recorded in Pike County happened today at the saw mill on the J. R. Harbison place, near Hobbs' Bridge, when a boiler burst and the lives of three men were instantly snuffed out and one other stands at death's door.

A Wilson, formerly of Jonson, but had lived in Pike County some time. Outman Harden, son of the late J. R. Harbison, was also killed. George Johnson, son of John Johnson.

Mr. Lanford, skull crushed and legs and arms broken and is not expected to live.

Details in regard to the bursting of the boiler were brought to the city by Milton Shipman, of Brundidge, and the bodies of Wilson, Harden and Johnson were taken to the city.

The explosion occurred between 8:00 and 9:00 o'clock this morning and was heard for miles around.

According to Shipman it was possibly a hundred horse power boiler and it is presumed that the water ran low and when cold water was in the explosion occurred. The bodies of Wilson and Harden were blown fully 100 feet on top of a saw dust pile. The top of the boiler was blown fully 100 yards and it is said the mill site was wiped clean, all the brick built around the boiler being blown away.

The three men were instantly killed, being terribly mangled. No hope is held out for Langford, who was the freeman.

C. A. Wilson, one of those killed, formerly lived at Jonson, Ala. He is survived by his wife.

Outman Harden is survived by his mother, wife and several children. He has a brother living in Troy, N. C. and he is employed by the P. C. Black Motor Co.

George Johnson, single, is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson.

The saw mill was operated by a Mr. Dyer, who formerly lived in North Alabama, and they were cutting timber on the place of Dickson, Fleming Lumber Co., of Brundidge.

Rev. C. A. Williams and family left Tuesday for Blountstown, Fla., where they go to make their home for the coming year. They have many friends who wish for them much happiness in their new place.

METHODIST LADIES WILL HAVE BAZAAR ON DEC. 8th.

The Methodist ladies will hold their annual bazaar on the second Thursday in December, at Miss Debatia Blocker's store. It will consist of a variety of goods on the table. The whole church membership to join us, and let make our bazaar a success.

On next Monday the Missionary Society will meet at the church for their regular business meeting, and in connection will have two chapters in our Mission Study (Healing Our Selves). This book is real interesting and instructive. The business part of the church and its organizations is very necessary, but it seems that everything is in such a rush, that we forget the great aim, and that is to do good to the poor and needy.

Boys and girls. So let take time for study and prayer.

NEW METHODIST PASTOR WILL ARRIVE THIS WEEK.

Rev. E. B. Paul, who has been assigned to the Elba Methodist church for the coming year, is expected to reach Elba today, Thursday. He will reside at the church on next Sunday, and all are invited to hear him, especially members of the congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Maddox entertained at a lovely party Tuesday evening. Pink and white roses lent their fragrance and beauty to the living room where tables were arranged for rock. After a number of games the hostess served a delicious plate lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Maddox's guests were members of the As You Like It Club and Dr. and Mrs. Abernethy and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kendrick.

MRS. MAHAN HOSTESS TO JR. G. A. GIRLS.

Mr. T. C. Mahan entertained her Junior G. A. girls Tuesday night. Next Saturday, with a Halloween party at her home. Toyote Haines received most votes for having the prettiest costume. The hours were filled with amusing games and stunts.

At 8:00 o'clock cake and tea were served. Miss Gladys Jackson and Tillman Mahan, assisting. The hour for saying good-night came too early. At 9 P. M. they departed for their homes with profuse thanks to their hostess, declaring they had a most joyous time.

Miss Jeanette Garrett spent last week end in Troy, the guest of her sister, Miss Margaret Garrett.

FINE STALK OF CANE.

Mr. C. M. Whitehead, living on Route 1, sent to the Clinch Tuesday, a sample of his sugar cane crop of the year. The stalk measures 19 feet and 7 inches in length, and is matured to the very top. This is a fine stalk of cane, and the longest we have had this year.

WILLING WORKERS MEET WITH MRS. FOUNTAIN—

The Willing Workers met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Fountain. The president, Mrs. Fannie Fountain, presided during the business hour. A discussion of the local service program was given by Mrs. J. W. Kendrick. The lesson dealt with the love, and our attitude toward and obligation to the church for the sick and needy.

An excellent personal service report was given to the chairman, Mrs. C. F. Hayes. There were twelve present. The meeting was dismissed with prayer.

AK-SAR-PEN KING

Enterprise Ledger says: It was learned a few days ago that L. A. Boyd, a former resident of this city, was to return to the State Department under the Brandon administration, and J. L. Warren and others locally are behind the movement to erect another cotton mill in Enterprise. The location of the mill and when construction is to begin are facts yet to be determined, but there is every possibility that it will be erected within the next few months.

The size of the mill is to be 10,000 spindles, or nearly twice as large as the Enterprise Cotton Mills. It will probably be electrically driven throughout and at completion will cost something in the neighborhood of $600,000. All machinery and equipment of every kind and character, as well as the residential section for operatives, will be modern in every respect. It is expected that about 1,500 workers will be employed which will mean a great deal to Enterprise business houses from a trade standpoint.

Nothing could be more pleasing to the citizenship of this city than to have Mr. Boyd return here, and especially would it be gratifying to have him at the head of so large an industry as that contemplated.

The Ledger is informed upon good authority that it is Mr. Boyd's earnest desire to have the new mill built here, and we feel sure that every encouragement and co-operation will be extended him to the end that the much needed and very helpful addition may be early realized.

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this method of extending our sincere thanks to our many neighbors and friends, who were so kind and thoughtful of us, during our recent bereavement, the death of our wife and mother. We shall ever remember with grateful hearts the many kindnesses shown and expressions of sympathy received from each and every one of you.

A. J. (Bud) Danley.

Box Supper.

There will be a box supper at B. B. Crassinger Friday night, November 11, for the benefit of the school. Everybody come and bring some one.

Each year scores of Tennessee farmers name their farms. The Tennessee Extension Service and the State Department, in cooperation, have pushed the "naming the farm" idea.

Alabama turkeys are going to market in carlots by cooperative sales agents this season. The sales will be conducted by the Farm Bureau and the county agents, and the Thanksgiving price will be higher than that received last year.

We saw the new school shoes have room for feet to grow. One inch longer than the foot is a safe allowance.

NEW 10,000 SPINDLE COTTON MILL MAY BE LOCATED IN ENTERPRISE.

CHARLIE BARKER WRITES INTERESTING LETTER FROM NEW MEXICO.

Albuquerque, N. M., November 10, 1927.

Editor Clipper:—I will appreciate it if you will publish these few lines in your good paper, as it may be of some interest to my many friends and acquaintances in Coffee County.

I want to thank all my friends for their help and kindness during my sickness. I have been in Albuquerque, New Mexico, since July 27, and can say that I have had a wonderful improvement. I am advised by my doctor that my chance is very favorable for an ultimate recovery. I have gained in weight and my general condition appears to be good, although for the present I am kept in bed. The most of the time, which, as the doctors say, is the only way to make a cure. I hope they are right, and that I may soon return home sound and well again.

This is a beautiful little town, situated in the Rio Grande valley, and on the main line of the Santa Fe Railroad, and has a population of twenty-five thousand, about one-third of whom are health-seekers.

The climate, as I have been told, is the best to be found anywhere in the Southwest. I know it has been here since I have been here, with very little rain, and the days are warm and sunny. The month of October had a total of twenty-nine clear days, and so far this month has been a perfect record. The average annual rainfall for Albuquerque is 10.5 inches. It is certainly a wonderful climate for those suffering with tuberculosis, as is evidenced by the great number who come here yearly for their health. I feel that I have already been greatly benefited, and believe, if I can remain here long enough, that I will make a complete recovery.

Of course, as any one knows, it takes time to heal this disease. The greatest difficulty which I experience is in being away from my family and my good friends in the home state of Elba, but I hope it will not be long until I can be with you all again. With best wishes to everybody and hoping I may have the pleasure of seeing you all again soon, I remain, Sincerely yours, for the blessings bestowed upon us throughout the year and for the remarkable increase in the number of our customers. The determination to save and prosper was an inborn characteristic of the American people who have set a fine example in vision and foresight for the nations of the world. A dollar will open an account. Why not start this Thanksgiving and have cause for greater thanks in time to come?

Charles E. Barker.

Determination

The living room was decorated with pot plants and chrysanthemums, carrying out a color motif of green and white. Here the guests enjoyed games and contests until a late hour. Then they were invited into the dining room. Pink and white streamers extended from the corners of the table and clustered around the light, producing a most beautiful effect. Two cakes containing burning candles were placed on the table. The dinner was prepared by Mrs. Willie Mitchell, and she was assisted in serving by Misses Annie Laurie Ballard and Hazel Bonneau.

Covers were laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. H. Jeter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whitman, Mrs. W. H. Bonneau, Renzo Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. John Bonneau.

Mr. W. B. Byrd, of Enterprise, was a visitor at Elba Tuesday.

WOODMEN HOLD FIRST INITIATION OF BIG MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN.

At a special meeting of Crockett Camp held Wednesday night, several new members were received into the order after taking the initiatory degree. Enthusiasm ran high and every one of the large number present pledged themselves to work during the coming week and have still a larger class for the meeting next Wednesday night.

Talks were made by many of the visiting Sovereigns who expressed their pleasure at being present at such a wonderful gathering of members of the fastest growing fraternal insurance society in existence. Many new and novel features were introduced by Deputy S. S. Wiggins, who is conducting the membership drive. He was assisted in this work by B. F. Comer, Esq., and several of the other members of the Camp.

A splendid talk was made by Rev. T. C. Mahan, Consul Commander, and a very enthusiastic worker for the local Camp. It is planned to hold a meeting every Wednesday night until the close of the campaign which will in all probability be during the early part of December. Extra and added entertainment will be given from time to time, and it is announced by those in charge that already a large class will be ready for the next meeting.

Deputy Wiggins comes highly recommended and the officers of the Camp earnestly urge that every member give him every possible assistance during the campaign. Mr. Wiggins did a wonderful work in this section of the state and has added several hundred members to the Camp in this section within the past few months.

The Women of the World is financially speaking the strongest fraternal beneficiary society in the world and in point of membership is second to only one. In other words the Woodmen of the World is an organization that any man may well be proud to be affiliated with, for in addition to furnishing "home protection" at cost, they own and operate one of the best equipped tubercular hospitals in the country. This hospital is for the exclusive use and free treatment of all members of the society who are now or may become afflicted with this dreaded disease.

Second Hog Sale to be held at Elba on Tuesday, November 29th.

Bring your hogs to Elba Tuesday, November 29th and get the best price available on that date. Keep your roughs for home use and sell your tops, as roughs make good meat for home use but do not bring as good price as tops.

All who want to sell some hogs next Tuesday will be helping the association by listing your hogs with Mr. D. C. Smith, the County Agent, or with either one of the Elba banks. We have already broken the tie and proved that you can save money by selling your hogs cooperatively, so bring your hogs and sell them the right way.

W. M. RAY, County Agent.

SMITH-ROWE MARRIAGE INTERESTING EVENT OF LAST WEDNESDAY.

The regular term of Mr. Claude N. Smith and Miss Gladie Rowe, which took place Wednesday evening, November 16th, at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. Arthur Brunson, is of interest to a wide circle of friends in Elba.

The bride was beautiful in a two piece dress of coral brown flat crepe combined with tan pique, heavily beaded. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Paul, pastor of the Elba Methodist Church. Immediately after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a trip to points of interest in Florida.

Mrs. Smith is a member of one of Coffee County's most prominent families, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Rowe, and a niece of the late Judge S. N. Rowe. She is one of Elba's most beautiful girls and is popular here and throughout the county, having taught in the public schools for several years. Mr. Smith is a successful business man of Elba. They both have scores of friends, who wish for them much happiness. They have returned from their wedding trip and are at home at their apartment in West Elba.

The many friends of Diamond Blum, Jr., will be interested to know that he has won a number of honors at A. P. I. where he is a student this year. Recently he was elected to the Elba club. He is a member of the Sigma Phi Fraternity and has been initiated into the Kappa, which is an honor society of that institution.

Judge O. S. Lewis, of Dothan, attended Circuit Court at Elba the first of the week.

Mrs. M. S. Carmichael and daughter, Caroline, of Montgomery, are guests of Mrs. W. P. Boyd, at Elba, this week.

ARRIVAL OF NEW FORD CAR IS ONLY QUESTION OF HOURS, SAYS LOCAL DEALER.

The arrival of the New Ford Car is only a question of hours now, not days, weeks or months, according to reports of Dorsey Bros., local dealers. Mr. Dorsey has been requested to attend an important dealers meeting in Atlanta next Friday at which time it is understood complete plans for the introduction and showing of the New Ford automobile will be rendered. Several cars of the New Ford have been received in Atlanta but it is not possible to obtain information whether these will be delivered to the visiting dealers or not.

Dealers who have had an opportunity of driving and carefully examining the new car are very much enthused over its performance and would indicate that those who have been waiting for the new car are to be rewarded for their patience and will receive a car that the dealers say is worth more than twice the price.

A general clearing up is under way with all dealers, which points out, however, that it is only a few hours now.

JUDGE CARNLEY WRITES ABOUT AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED ON DECEMBER 13th.

One of the ten amendments to be voted on in the special election on December 13, 1927, namely, Proposed Amendment No. 6, applies to Coffee and all other counties, except Montgomery and Mobile. This proposed amendment will authorize Coffee and other counties to increase their bonded indebtedness in a sum equal to one and one-half percent of the total assessed value of taxable property.

The Constitution of Alabama now limits each county indebtedness to not exceeding three and one-half percent of the total assessed value of taxable property. The proposed amendment No. 6 will allow any county to incur an additional bonded debt of 1 1/2 per cent, making the Constitutional limit not exceeding 5 per cent of the total assessed value.

In Coffee County we now have a bonded debt of $186,000. Under the present provisions of the Constitution and Code section 234, we could by a vote of the people increase this bonded debt to 3 1/2 per cent of the total assessed value of taxable property, which is now nine millions. Three and one-half per cent of $9,000,000 assessed valuation is $810,000, or $324,000 more than what it is at present. In other words, we now lack $138,000 reaching the debt limit.

In the event proposed amendment No. 6 should be ratified, Coffee County could have a total bonded indebtedness of $424,000, or an increase over the present bonded debt in the increased sum of $238,000. The proposed amendment No. 6 would allow an increase in the limit of $135,000.

At the present time the interest on our bonded debt is $10,200 a year. This is a big sum to come out of our general taxes of $45,000 a year. Do we need to raise the limit? Do we want to increase our bonded debt? If we should want to do this, we can, under the present provisions of our Constitution, increase it from $186,000 to $424,000 on the present assessed value.

Suppose we should ratify the proposed amendment No. 6, and the qualified voters of Coffee County should vote to increase the limit of our bonded debt to the limit that is, to $424,000, or more than our assessed valuation is increased from year to year, and suppose Coffee should issue bonds bearing 5 per cent interest. The interest then, which would be the order of the day, which vast sum would take one-half of the present general funds of the county for interest, would be $21,200.

It might be said that the voters of the County would not vote any increase. I do not believe that would be the case. I think it is a dangerous thing to amend the Constitution so as to authorize increases of debt in municipalities, County or Town. We should have uniform Constitutional provisions. We have now amended the Constitution of Alabama, since 1801, by substituting proposed amendments by the Legislature from time to time, until now our Constitution is like up to a "patched quilt." It is time to call a halt.

Respectfully,
J. A. CARNLEY,
Judge of Probate.

4-CLUB NOTES: PLANS MADE FOR SELLING HOME PRODUCE.

The County Council of Women's Clubs met at the office of the Home Demonstration Agent, on Saturday, November 19th. There were ten members present. Miss Emma Farley, Mr. W. A. Eldon, of New Brockton, and Mr. Ellis, of Rhoades School discussed the school home issue. Plans were made for the selling of home products through Loveman, Joseph & Lach Store in Birmingham. The members of the home demonstration clubs are granted this privilege and many of the ladies are planning to take advantage of it.

Special Demonstrations. A series of special demonstrations of biscuits, biscuit variations, cake making, popping and frosting have been given by Miss Gertrude Cowley, of Chicago, who is representing the Educational Department of the Calumet Baking Powder Co. Miss Cowley states that her aim is to make baking easy for the housewife.

She stresses the fact that baking can be done with less work than is ordinarily done. Miss Cowley is a person of unusual charm and ability and is capable of adapting herself to any situation. She is both scientific and artistic, as well as practical in her work. She urges the use of the best ingredients. Miss Cowley is working with Miss Ann Broughton, Home Demonstration Agent in the 4-H clubs and Parent-Teacher Associations. If any group of women other than 4-H club women are interested in this demonstration, please see Miss Broughton at her office in Elba or at the Farm Bureau office in Enterprise and a date can be arranged for a demonstration.

WILLING WORKERS ENTER-TAINED AT STRAIN HOME—A lovely affair was the party given by the Willing Workers Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Almon Strain, when their guests were their husbands. The living and dining rooms were thrown together and decorated with chrysanthemums and greenery. The program for the evening was:

Vocal Duets—Miss Madeline Strain and Mr. S. H. Brock.

Piano Solo—Miss Hazel Blair.

Quartet—Misses Hazel Blair and Mr. Almon Strain, Messrs. S. H. Brock and Ernest Freeman.

After the program jokes and stunts were enjoyed. Delicious punch and sandwiches were served. This was a most delightful affair and Mr. and Mrs. Strain proved ideal host and hostess.
